Letter from Joan Cooper

Dear Friends,
As we celebrate Harvest in our churches with special thanksgiving services I am reminded of the words of a favourite hymn:

Come ye thankful people come raise the song of harvest home all is safely gathered in ere the winter storms begin God our maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied…

All the world in God's own field
Fruit unto his praise to yield wheat and tares therein are sown unto joy or sorrow grown

A joyful hymn to celebrate the season, and reminds us of God's goodness to us. This year has seen a poor grain harvest for our farmers but we still have to remind ourselves how fortunate we are compared to many other places. The crops depend on land cultivated, seed sown, warmth and moisture (this year water in short supply) – finally the crops are harvested. This reminds us of our Christian life – are we being prepared for it – the seed – prayer and bible study, sun and warmth – our church community and reaching out to those who find faith difficult to understand. We are custodians of your world and we need to be reminded of our Christian responsibility to conserve the earth's resources and distribute produce fairly and unselfishly, remembering those who do not have enough and the thousands dying of hunger whilst there are those who have more than they require and need. The harvest teaches us that faith is like a seed, nurtured in patience and grows into a life filled with the blessing of God's love.

A harvest prayer
Lord of the harvest, we rejoice in the bounty of your world; we thank you for the rich harvests it produces. As we do so, we remember those who do not have enough, the thousands who are daily dying of hunger. We pray for those who have more than they required. Show us what needs to be done, and how to share the harvest. Teach us to value people more than things. Above all to help us to set our hearts on your kingdom of love and justice and to seek to do your will here on earth, as servants of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Opening Hymn Let us build a house where love can dwell

1. Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:

All are welcome, all are welcome
all are welcome in this place

2. Let us build a house where prophets speak and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus.

3. Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground
where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus,
is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us

4. Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone
to heal and strengthen, serve and teach,
and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger
bear the image of God's face;
let us bring an end to fear and danger:

5. Let us build a house where all are named their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed,
as words within the Word.
Build of tears and cries and laughter,
prayers of faith and songs of grace,
let this house proclaim from floor to rafter

The Collect for the Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

O God, forasmuch as without you
we are not able to please you;
mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit
may in all things direct and rule our hearts;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

First Reading Exodus 32.1-14

A reading from the book of Exodus.

When the people of Israel saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, 'Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' Aaron said to them, 'Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.' So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mould, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, 'Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD.' They rose early the next day, and offered burnt-offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

The LORD said to Moses, 'Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; [8]they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"' The LORD said to Moses, 'I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.'

But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, 'O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, "It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth"? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, "I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever.'" And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Second Reading Philippians 4.1-9

A reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians.

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.
I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.
Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn The Lord's my shepherd

1. The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green: he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

2. My soul he doth restore again;
and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness,
ev'n for his own name's sake.

3. Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

4. My table thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows

5. Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house forever more
My dwelling place shall be.

Scottish Psalter, 1650, Psalm 23; Ancient & Modern 799i

Gospel Reading Matthew 22.1-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Once more Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.
But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'
This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Offertory Hymn Jerusalem the golden

1. Jerusalem the golden,
with milk and honey blest,
beneath thy contemplation
sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, O I know not what joys await us there,
what radiancy of glory,
what bliss beyond compare.

2. They stand, those halls of Sion, conjubilant with song,
and bright with many an angel,
and all the martyr throng;
the Prince is ever with them,
the daylight is serene;
the pastures of the blessèd
are decked in glorious sheen.

3. There is the throne of David;
and there, from care released,
the shout of them that triumph,
the song of them that feast;
and they, who with their leader
have conquered in the fight, for ever and for ever
are clad in robes of white.

4. Oh, sweet and blessèd country,
the home of God's elect!
Oh, sweet and blessèd country,
that eager hearts expect!
Jesu, in mercy bring us
to that dear land of rest;
who art, with God the Father
and Spirit, ever blest.

Words: Urbs Sion aurea, Bernard of Cluny (12th century), tr John Mason Neale (1919-1866)
Music: Ewing, Alexander Ewing (1830-1895) (Ancient & Modern – 683)

During Communion the choir will sing One bread, one body, by John Foley SJ (b.1939).

Prayer after Communion

Holy and blessed God,
you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son
and filled us with your Holy Spirit:
may we honour you,
not only with our lips
but in lives dedicated to the service
of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Hymn Great is thy faithfulness

1. Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father, there is no shadow of turning with thee;
thou changest not, thy compassions they fail not,
as thou hast been thou for ever wilt be.

Great is thy faithfulness! Great is thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
all I have needed thy hand hath provided,
great is thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me.

2. Summer and winter, and spring-time and harvest,
sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
join with all nature in manifold witness to thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

3. Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth, thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

News from the Team

Prayer for the Sick

We pray to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for those suffering in body, mind or spirit, among Lorraine Perril, David Pattinson, Geraldine Feehally, Peter Hill and Cliff Horton; and for all who care for and support them.

We also pray for those we know, those who have no-one to pray for them and for all who care for and support them in any way.

The names of Michael Hardy and Jack Pearce are now in the book of prayer for those who have been unwell for a while. This book is kept in the Trinity Chapel and we're all encouraged to add the people to our own prayers, even if not by name.

Remembering the recently departed

We remember with thanksgiving those recently departed this life, among them Jim Rimmington, Eileen Strick and Lynda Allman; and we pray for the families and friends of those who have died.

Please phone the Team office or email notices@oakhamteam.org.uk to add names to these lists.

All are welcome to the Harvest service at Brooke next Sunday, with donations to the Rutland Food Bank.

Christmas Tree Festival – invitations!

We're planning a Christmas Tree Festival at All Saints over the weekend 4-6 December – not on a big scale, but as a bit of a fundraiser and social event. Invitations are going out around groups and businesses around Oakham, and these forms can also be found at the back of church for groups and individuals in the congregation We're hoping to fill the church with lots of tree displays around the theme 'Winter Wonderland', and we know that several local uniformed groups are already preparing their displays.
If you or a group you are part of would like to join in, please speak to Pam Gilbert or Ann Blackett at All Saints or pick up a form from All Saints.

Voluntary Action Rutland

A sad update for those at CAMEO who heard the recent VAR presentation. On the weekend 2nd to 3rd October both VAR minibuses were vandalised, one stolen and found in a nearby field minus an engine and battery. An impact on the ability to supply much needed services.
Richard Plummer

Food 'snatchers'

A note from Brian Chester in Egleton
Food snatchers are still 'on the prowl'. Holy Trinity, Teigh, recently reported that many of the Food Bank offerings given at Harvest Festival had 'disappeared'; St Edmund's, Egleton can now report that three tins of food placed in the church's Food Bank donation box, have also been 'removed'. It seems likely that the 'food lifters' are aware of our activities and possibly those churches which have permanent donation boxes.

Fairtrade Matters

We are now in Fairtrade Fortnight and I will once again be taking orders for The Real Advent Calendars, which are the only calendars telling our Christmas story. They are not available in shops and are a fun way for children (and adults) to be reminded of the true meaning of Christmas.
I am selling these at £5.00 each, and taking orders throughout October and early November.
Please support this worthy cause, as cocoa farmers struggle with adapting to climate change. Remember, you can support Fairtrade throughout the year, with groceries, gifts and Using cafés offering Fairtrade coffee and teas. Thank you.
